Pre-Reading Discussion Questions

Discuss the front cover of the book:
- Identify the type of vehicle featured on the cover.
- Predict where the bus is going. How do you know?
- Explain why the door is open. Who do you think will be entering the bus?
- Tell what the red sign on the right says. Explain what this sign signals for cars and pedestrians to do.
- The title of the book is It's Your First Day of School, Busy Bus! An author carefully chooses letters, words, and punctuation to communicate messages and emotions. Notice that the author chose to place an exclamation point at the end of the title. Determine why adding this particular punctuation mark might be important to the story.
- Study the illustration. Describe the bus's feelings about driving to school for the very first time. How do you know?
- Describe your feelings about going to school for the first time.
- Predict what It's Your First Day of School, Busy Bus! is going to be about.

Meet the Author – Jody Jensen Shaffer:
- Both of Jody’s parents are teachers. Determine how having teachers as parents might have inspired Jody to become an author.
- Jody says that she remembers the exact moment that she learned to read. How about you? Talk about your experiences with learning how to read.
- Jody says that she loves to laugh and she loves funny things. Discuss how enjoying happy things might influence Jody’s writing.
- To find out more about Jody and her other interesting writing projects, access her website at jodyjensenshaffer.com.

Meet the Illustrator – Claire Messer:
- Claire is both an author and an illustrator. This means that she tells stories with words and with pictures. Consider the illustration on the front cover. Describe the story Claire’s illustration is telling.
- One of the books that Claire has written and illustrated is titled Lazybones, which is a story about a shy black dog. After studying the photo to the right, why do you think she decided to craft a book about a black dog?
- Predict how Claire feels about the smiling dog beside her. How do you know?
- In addition to writing and illustrating books, Claire creates special cards and invitations for her stationery company called Ten and Sixpence. To find out more about Claire and her art, access her website at clairemesser.com.
Post-Reading Discussion Questions

Busy Bus is wide awake.
He can't wait to meet the children.
He hopes they will like him.

- Observe the five buses parked in the bus barn. Identify ways that they are the same. Discover ways that they are different.
- How do the buses feel about driving children to school? How do you know?
- Determine what makes this particular school day a special one. Tell why this is so.
- Consider Busy Bus’s thoughts about meeting the children. He is both eager to meet them and yet is concerned whether they will like him. How about you? Have you ever felt eager and a little worried at the same time? If so, when and why?

Busy Bus hopes the children will know that they are safe.

- The word diligent means busy and careful. Explain why Ben the bus driver is busy and careful about checking each of the following parts of the bus before inviting children to ride Busy Bus to school:
  - Explain why Ben the bus driver checked the air pressure in the tires.
  - Discuss the reasons why he cleaned and adjusted the mirrors.
  - Determine why he made sure the stop arm was working properly.
  - Why would checking the blinkers and lights be important to do?
  - Consider the importance of checking that the emergency door is functioning properly.
  - Tell why having a fire extinguisher and an emergency kit on the bus might help to keep passengers safe.
  - Explore reasons why Ben the bus driver checks the engine, the buttons and gauges of the dashboard, the horn, the windshield wipers, steering wheel, and brakes before leaving for school.
- Describe what the word safe means to you. Explain why checking all of the parts of the bus assures that the children riding Busy Bus will be safe.
What if I get homesick? he worries.
What if I don’t make any friends?

• The word homesick means to feel unhappy because a person is away from home. Busy Bus is leaving the bus barn and his bus family to drive to the school for the very first time. Determine why he might be worried about becoming homesick.

• There are many unknown aspects regarding the first day of school. List those that come to mind.

• When people are worried, they feel anxious, uneasy, and fearful. Explain why Busy Bus feels worried about making friends at school. Have you ever felt this way? Explain your answer.

He is safe.
He is clean.
He is loved.

• List the ways that Busy Bus is safe. Explain why being safe is important to Busy Bus and his passengers.

• Discuss why being clean makes Busy Bus and his passengers feel confident and cared for.

• Determine how Ben the bus driver demonstrated that he loved Busy Bus.

• Identify ways that Busy Bus extends love and care for his passengers.

• Does Busy Bus need to worry about safety, becoming homesick, or making friends any longer? Why or why not?

• How about you? Talk about overcoming worries about the first day of school.
The Parts of a Bus Folder Game

Objective: To use letter-sound relationships to decode words.

Materials:
- The Parts of a Bus Cover Sheet (Guide, pg. 7)
- The Parts of a Bus Word Labels (Guide, pg. 7)
- The Parts of a Bus Patterns (Guide, pg. 8)
- A variety of colored felt pieces (yellow, black, grey & white)
- Scissors
- A manila folder
- Glue stick
- Velcro dots
- Sheet of paper
- Tape
- Markers

Procedure:
- Print The Parts of a Bus Cover Sheet, The Parts of a Bus Patterns, and The Parts of a Bus Word Labels. Use scissors to trim around the borders of the cover sheet and the word labels.
- Using the glue stick, affix the cover sheet to the front of the manila folder. Instruct students to use a marker to write their name in the space provided on the cover sheet.
- Use The Parts of the Bus Patterns as pattern to cut out the various parts of the bus. Yellow – bus, white – headlights, black – tires, sidewall & windows, grey – bumpers & hubcaps.
- Create a pocket by taping only three sides of the paper to the inside cover of the manila folder.
- Place two velcro dots on the left, inside section of the manila folder. These dots will be used to secure the felt pieces to the folder game.
- Instruct students to lay out their felt pieces on a flat surface. Encourage them to match the word labels to the correct part of the bus.
- Instruct students to build a bus by arranging the felt pieces on the left inside section of the manila folder. Encourage them to practice using the vocabulary involved in the bus creating process.
- Students may desire to use markers to illustrate a background on the right inside portion of the manila folder.
- Tell students to store their word labels and felt bus pieces in the pocket they created with paper and tape.
- Instruct students to write and illustrate a short story describing all that they know about a school bus.
- Share their work with the class.

The Busy Bus Adjective Poem

Objective: To make observations and connections with key aspects of the story.

Materials:
- It’s Your First Day of School, Busy Bus!
- The Adjective List - Describing Words Template (Guide, pg. 15)
- An Adjective Poem Template (Guide, pg. 16)
- Pencil
- Markers

Procedure:
- Instruct students to reread It’s Your First Day of School, Busy Bus! Direct students to identify the sounds, colors, and shapes featured in the story. Consider the range of emotions Busy Bus feels as the story progresses.
- Using The Adjective List - Describing Words Template and a pencil, encourage students to list at least ten adjectives in each column that best describe the sounds, colors, shapes, and emotions explored in the text.
- Instruct students to choose six adjectives that they feel best describe Busy Bus’s character. Write their words in the spaces provided on the An Adjective Poem Template.
- Tell the students to illustrate their poems in the framed provided on the poem template.
- Encourage the students to share their work with the class.
